

Georgia Ulsch

ULSCH, Georgia Virginia (Flynn)

The Brunswick News; Tuesday 18 March 1930; pg. 8 col. 4

MRS. ULSCH PASSES AWAY EARLY TODAY IN JACKSONVILLE

News was received in this city today of the death in Jacksonville shortly after midnight of Mrs. George Ulsch, for many years a well known and beloved Brunswick woman, who still has an unusually large number of friends in Brunswick.

Mrs. Ulsch, who was 80 years of age, spent her entire early life in Brunswick, removing to Jacksonville a number of years ago when her son, Malcolm W. Ulsch, was transferred to that city. He had represented the lumber firm of R.R. Sizer & Co., in Brunswick for years and was later promoted and transferred to Jacksonville.

The deceased was a most lovable character and will be remembered by many of Brunswick's oldest residents for her kindness, her charitable and religious work. She was practically all of her life a member of the First Methodist church.

Short funeral services will be held at the home in Jacksonville at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The funeral cortege, in charge of Undertaker Edo Miller, will then leave that city and come to Brunswick. The body will be carried to the home of Miss Jennie Franklin, 801 Monk street, where it will remain until 3:45 when the funeral will be held from the First Methodist church, Rev. W.P. Blevins and Rev. T.B. Sanford, of Douglas, conducting the services. The following friends will act as pall bearers: D.W. Krauss, H.F. duBignon, J.S.M. Symons, W.H. Greenfield, L.J. Leavy, Jr., R.G. Harley. The interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Published: 3/18/1930