MRS. R.E. WALKER DIES HERE TODAY

Mrs. Clara Walker, widow of the late R.E. Walker, Sr., one of Brunswick's oldest and best known women, died at the Brunswick hospital this morning. She had been ill for a long time and had been in the hospital for treatment some months.

Mrs. Walker resided at the old family home, 208 Howe Street. No survivor is in the city at this time, therefore definite facts about her are not available. However, it is understood she had resided in Brunswick all of her life.

Mrs. Walker is survived by two sons, Newton W. Walker, New Orleans, and R.E. Walker, Atlanta.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later by the Edo Miller & Sons Funeral Home.

FUNERAL MONDAY FOR MRS. WALKER

Funeral services for Mrs. Clara G. Walker, widow of the late R.E. Walker, who died Friday, will be held Monday morning at 11 o'clock in the chapel of the Edo Miller & Sons Funeral Home with the Rev. Morris P. Webb, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery. Pallbearers will be: Fred Fain, Harry duB. Parker, I.M. Aiken, Joe Lambright, Sr., Ed Sherman, G.T. Holody, S. Hadley Brown and Dr. Joe B. Mercer.

Mrs. Walker, who would have been 96 in July, was born in Dubline [sic], Ga. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. William Wright, pioneer Georgians. Her late husband, Richard Ernest Walker, was born in England. She had been a resident of Brunswick for 55 years. She lived at 208 Howe Street in the home that was built by her husband's father. She was a member of the First Methodist Church and took an active part in church affairs in her earlier life. She is survived by two sons, Newton Walker, Galveston, Texas, and Richard E. Walker, Atlanta and two grandchildren.
