

Richard Walker

The Brunswick Pilot; Friday 5 February 1932; pg. 8 cols. 2-3

DEATHS -- Richard Walker, 75, died at his home here Sunday morning. Although Mr. Walker had been in ill health for some time his death was unexpected. Mr. Walker has lived in Brunswick most of his life and was connected with the Southern Railway here for many years. He is survived by his widow and two sons, Newton W. Walker, of Brunswick and R.E. Walker, Jr., of Johnson City, Tenn.