

Charlie Ward

The Augusta Chronicle (Augusta, GA); Sunday 4 December 1898; pg. 5 col. 5

MR. C.A. WARD, A FORMER AUGUSTAN PASSES TO ETERNAL REST

Mr. C.A. Ward died at his home in Brunswick, Ga., Friday, the 25th from heart failure, in the 43rd year of his age. He leaves a wife and three children, besides a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. Funeral services were on Sunday, the 27th, from the First Methodist church, and the interment was in Oak Grove cemetery.

In 1892 Mr. Ward married Miss Lillie Green, a very estimable lady of Brunswick, and made that place his home. He was identified with the lumber and crosstie business. He was born and raised in Augusta, where he has many warm and personal friends. He was the eldest son of our esteemed fellow citizen, captain P.H. Ward.