

August Warnke

The Brunswick News; Sunday 9 July 1916; pg. 1 col. 4

BODY WILL ARRIVE FOR BURIAL TODAY

The body of August Warnke, who died in Chicago early last week, will arrive today over the Southern railway and will be taken to the undertaking parlors of Baldwin & Edge, where it will lie until 3 o'clock this afternoon at which time the funeral services will be held in the Oak Grove cemetery, Rev. S.J. French officiating. The services will be private. The following will officiate as pall bearers: C.D. Doerflinger, John Baumgartner, G.G. Counzelman, William Nisi, G.C. Calhoun and W.R. Cox. Mrs. Joseph Doerflinger, of Savannah, a sister of the deceased and a former resident of Brunswick, will arrive today to attend the funeral.

Published: 7/09/1916