

Bolling Whitfield

The Atlanta Constitution; Monday 25 July 1921; pg. 5 col. 3

PROMINENT BRUNSWICK LAWYER DIES SUNDAY

Brunswick, Ga. July 24-(Special)-Judge Bollin Whitfield, one of Brunswick's oldest and best known lawyers, passed away at his home in this city today at noon. Judge Whitfield had been in failing health for some time. This morning he sent to his office for some legal papers, and after looking them over decided to take a short rest. He died an hour later while asleep.

Judge Whitfield, well known all over the state, was 70 years of age and has practiced law in Brunswick for about 35 years. He was division counsel of the A.B. & A and local counsel of the Seaboard Air Line.

The deceased is survived by his widow and four children, Mrs. Warren H. Reese and Lavergne Whitfield, of Montgomery, Ala.; Captain Eugene B. Whitfield, who is now stationed in Paris, and Mrs. R.G. Hause, who is en route to this country from France. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon.

Published: 7/25/1921