MRS. C.C. WILSON DIED YESTERDAY AT HER HOME HERE

Mrs. Caroline C. Wilson, who has been ill for some time at her home here, passed away at 9:20 o'clock yesterday morning. Her condition for the past several days was critical and no hope was held out for her.

The deceased was born on November 1, 1855, in Camden county, where she spent the early years of her life. In 1884 she was married to Lysander L. Wilson, of Tenants Harbor, Maine, where she made her home for about 16 years. Prior to her marriage she resided in Brunswick and after her husband's death she moved back to this city in 1918 and has since made her home here.

Mrs. Wilson is survived by one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Atkinson, and was an aunt of Miss Mamie Atkinson, with whom she lived. She is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews, who reside in Camden county and Florida.

Funeral services will be held from the residence, 129 Grant street, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by Rev. A.W. Rees, pastor of the First Methodist church, of which the deceased was a member. Mortician Edo Miller will be in charge of the funeral and interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

The pall bearers will be the following: T.A. Ford, T.E. Glover, J.J. Farrell, S. Hadley Brown, W.H. Wood, Wilbur Keany.
