

Charlotte Woodbridge

The Brunswick Call; Thursday 10 March 1898; pg. 1 col. 6

DIED YESTERDAY MORNING-MRS. CHARLOTTE M. WOODBRIDGE PASSED AWAY

At half past two o'clock, yesterday morning, Mrs. Charlotte M. Woodbridge, relict of the late Dr. Grafton D. Woodbridge, breathed her last at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E.A. Penniman, on Union street.

Mrs. Woodbridge was 79 years of age and lately had been suffering with a complication of illnesses.

The funeral will occur at three o'clock this afternoon from St. Mark's Episcopal church. Relatives of the deceased in adjacent cities have been advised and will arrive in the city this morning.

The Brunswick Call; Friday 11 March 1898; pg. 1 col. 5

FUNERAL POSTPONED

Owing to the fact that the relatives of Mrs. Charlotte M. Woodbridge, whose death was noted in yesterday's CALL, did not arrive, the funeral has been postponed until 11 o'clock this morning.

Published: 3/10/1898