MRS. SCARLETT'S DEATH-The Sad Event Occurred Friday Afternoon-The Funeral Yesterday.

Mrs. Sarah Scarlett died at the residence of Mr. Mark Verdery, on Union street, Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Scarlett was the mother of Mrs. D.D. Atkinson, Mrs. Mark Verdery and Messrs. Frank M. and Joseph H. Scarlett, all of this city. They were all at her bedside when death came, as were also other relatives, ex-Governor Hull, of Florida, and Mr. Joseph Hull, of Savannah.

The funeral services were held at the residence yesterday morning and were conducted by Rev. R.C. Gilmore. The remains, accompanied by the relatives and a number of friends, were taken to Fancy Bluff on the Steamer Ruby, and interred at the family burying ground yesterday afternoon. The sorrowing relatives are the recipients of universal sympathy.
