DEATH OF G.S. SCARLETT, SR.-He Was One of Glynn's Most Prominent Citizens.

Brunswick, Ga., April 8-(Special)-G.S. Scarlett, Sr., one of the oldest residents of Glynn county, passed away at this home at Fancy Bluff at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Scarlett has been seriously ill for many months and his death was momentarily expected.

Mr. Scarlett leaves a large family to mourn their loss. Besides a widow there are twelve children, among them is Mrs. J.L. Beach, wife of the former prison commissioner, G.S. Scarlett, Jr., of the Southern railway, Mrs. Hillsman [sic], of Macon, Messrs. Mason and Frank Scarlett, of this city.

The deceased was one of the most prominent citizens of the county and had many friends in this city. The funeral occurred this morning, the remains being interred in the family cemetery at Fancy Bluff. A special boat went from Brunswick with a large number of friends.
