

Robert Cerveri

The Brunswick News; Friday 25 April 1969; pg. 8 col. 2

ROBERT J. CERVERI FOUND DEAD HERE

Robert J. Cerveri, 33, a Marine non-commissioned officer formerly stationed at NAS Glynco, was found dead in his automobile yesterday on a dirt road leading off Walker Rd.

The body was discovered about 10:30 a.m., according to Coroner C. Al Chapman, who said investigation showed no evidence of foul play involved. Cerveri had been dead some 10-14 hours when discovered, the coroner said.

The Marine was stationed at Beaufort, S.C., but was listed as residing at a Brunswick address, 2226 Formosa Circle. He had lived here for about three years.

Survivors include his wife, the former Josephine Head of Brunswick, and a daughter, Becca Cerveri; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cerveri of Reno, Nev.; a brother and a sister.

Funeral arrangements and a complete list of survivors will be announced later by the Gibson-Hard-Durden Funeral Home.

The Brunswick News; Saturday 26 April 1969; pg. 2 col. 4

CERVERI RITES TO BE SUNDAY

Funeral services for Robert J. Cerveri, 33, who died Thursday, will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday in the chapel of the Gibson-Hart-Durden Funeral Home.

Navy Chaplain Dwight Zeller and the Rev. Jimmy Smith will officiate, and interment will be in Taylor's Methodist Cemetery. Full military honors will be conducted at the graveside.

Gibson-Hart-Durden Funeral Home in charge.

Published: 4/25/1969