

Ronster Johnson

The Brunswick News; Friday 22 April 1994; pg. 3A col. 4

SERVICE SATURDAY FOR RONSTER JOHNSON

The funeral for Ronster Johnson, 81, of Sapelo Island will be 11 a.m. Saturday at St. Luke Baptist Church with the Rev. Anderson Jones officiating.

Burial will follow in Behavior Cemetery. The boat will leave Meridian Dock at 9 a.m.

Pallbearers will be deacons of St. Luke Baptist Church and of the First African Baptist Church of Sapelo Island.

He died April 15 at Southeast Georgia Regional Medical Center.

The family will receive friends from 6 to 7 tonight at Darien Funeral Home.

Surviving are his daughter, Eldora B. Cabral of Brunswick; two stepsons, Isador Campbell of New York city and Eugene Johnson of Brunswick; two sisters, Ruth Wilson of Sapelo Island and Dorothy Murray of Savannah; four brothers, Fred Johnson of Sapelo Island, Isaac Johnson and Lloyd Johnson, both of Brunswick, and Joe Johnson of New York City; and two grandchildren.

The lifelong resident of Sapelo Island was a retired boatyard worker and a deacon of St. Luke Baptist Church.