

Earl Walker

The Brunswick News; Thursday 12 August 2004; online article

Earl Walker Sr. of Sapelo Island died Sunday at the Hospice of the Golden Isles.

Mr. Walker was a member of St. Luke Baptist Church where he served as deacon, Sunday School teacher and treasurer. He was retired from the University of Georgia Marine Institute and had been a U.S. Army veteran of the Korean War.

The funeral service will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at St. Luke Baptist Church with the Rev. Ronnie J. Leggett officiating.

Burial will follow in Behavior Cemetery.

The boat will leave Meridian dock at 9:30 p.m. Saturday.

Pallbearers will be James Williams, Roy Hillery, Joel Hillery, Samuel Dixon, Charles Grovner and Julius Bailey.

Honorary pallbearers will be officers of St. Luke and First African Baptist churches.

Survivors include his wife, Josephine Walker of Sapelo Island; children, Earlene Ransom, Patricia Williams, Mary Ann Ransom and Earl Walker Jr., all of Brunswick, Delca Von Trice Massey of Jacksonville; a sister, Julie Mae Walker of Brunswick; six grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

Darien Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

=====

The Brunswick News; Saturday 14 August 2004 online article

Funeral services for Earl Walker Sr. have been changed to 11 a.m. Sunday at St. Luke Baptist Church on Sapelo Island, because of effects that had been anticipated from Hurricane Charley. The ferry will leave Meridian Dock at 9:30 a.m.